

There are 35 students in the high school band. They need to pick three students to represent the band on the school's Extracurricular Activity Committee. How many 3-student committees can be chosen from the band?