To be the graph of a proportional function, the graph must be a line AND the y-value corresponding to $x = 0$ must be 0. Graph A is the graph of the proportional function $y = -x$ (which equals -1 times x).