

Only Graph A represents a proportional function. The graphs of proportional functions are lines that go through the origin (that is, the point $(x,y) = (0,0)$).