

Remember that when you find a factor you should find the other number in the factor pair.