

Incorrect. To create an equivalent fraction, you multiply the numerator and denominator by the same number. You do not add the same number.