

Incorrect. Remember to multiply the numerators and multiply the denominators, and then simplify the answer. Before multiplying, you can reorder the numerators to see fractions that have a common factor.