

Do not add the numbers together. The wording of the problem tells you what to do: " $1\frac{3}{4}$ times the original recipe" means that you should multiply the original amount of flour by $1\frac{3}{4}$