

This is the whole number added to the reciprocal of the fractional part of the number. You must first write the mixed number as an improper fraction. Then find the reciprocal by flipping the numerator and denominator. The correct answer is $\frac{9}{40}$.