

Correct. In order for the table to represent an inverse variation function, the equation must be of the form  $y = \frac{k}{x}$ .

Since  $y = 6$  when  $x = 1$ , you can find  $k = 6$ . The function  $y = \frac{6}{x}$  matches each row of the table.