

24 is a common denominator, but not the least common denominator for the fractions. The least common multiple of 4 and 6 is 12, so rewrite both fractions with a denominator of 12.