

Correct. For each fraction, divide the numerator (top) of the fraction by the denominator (bottom) to get a decimal and then add that decimal to the whole number, 3. If the decimal repeats, use a bar to show the part that repeats.