When you rewrite the fractions with a common denominator, they must be equivalent to the original fractions. The numerators will not all remain unchanged. The correct answer is $4\frac{2}{3}$ pints.