

To add fractions with unlike denominators, you must first rewrite them with a common denominator. You do not add the numerators and denominators.