

Do not subtract the numerators and the denominators. Find a common denominator and change the fractions before subtracting the numerators.