

Only the graph in figure A represents a function. Figure B does not represent a function since several x -values (for example $x = 2$) has two corresponding y -values (namely 2 and -4).