

If you multiply  $7 \cdot 47 = 329$  to calculate the tax, you must remember to count the number of decimal places in the two factors. There are two decimal places. Therefore, the tax is \$3.29. This must be added to the \$47 to get the total.