

Correct. This function is linear since the difference between consecutive outputs is constant. It is the equation $y = -3x + 2$.