

This is the fraction of shaded squares, which is a different way of giving the same information. Percent means "per 100." Writing a percent means writing how many parts out of 100 you are counting.