

Percent is the number of parts out of 100. The large square has 6 unshaded rectangles out of 10, not out of 100. Divide each of the rectangles into 10 equal parts to create 100 equal-sized parts of the whole, then find the number of unshaded parts.