

This would have been correct for the problem  $0.014 - 0.002$ . Line up the two numbers so that the decimal points are aligned before subtracting, and keep them in the same order.