

Divide as you would for whole numbers. Place the decimal point in the quotient directly above the decimal point in the dividend.