

In the hundredths place, 3 is less than 6, while the digits in the tens, ones, and tenths places are the same. This makes the first number less than the second number.