

For each measurement in the first column, write the equivalent number of inches in the second column.