

Divide each of the 10 rectangles into 10 equal parts to create 100 equal-sized parts of the whole. There are 30 unshaded squares out of 100, which is 30% of the large square.