

Incorrect. Determine how many ways 8 robots can finish in the top three spots (order doesn't matter) and how many ways that two of three robots can finish in the top three spots. Dividing the first calculation by the second will give the answer.