

Correct. Because the addends have different signs, you must find the difference of 10 and 3, which is 7. Because 10 has the greater absolute value, the answer is positive 7 degrees Fahrenheit.