

Her balance will be $3(-20)$. You multiplied the absolute values correctly, but forgot that each transaction is a negative amount. Remember that a negative number times a positive number gives a negative product.