

You added the absolute values of the two amounts and may have thought  $-88 + 145$  was negative because the first addend was negative. Find the difference between the absolute values, 88 and 145, and give the sum the same sign as the number with the greater absolute value.