

The freezing point of Substance A is -185°C . The freezing point of Substance B is 126°C higher. What is the freezing point of Substance B?