

They receive  $x$  and need 3 more, so  $x + 3$  is the number they needed before the order. They originally needed 25 and had 7 already, so  $25 - 7$  is also the number they needed before the order. Since  $x + 3$  and  $25 - 7$  represent the same number, they are equal to each other.