

This is a correct statement, but it is not an illustration of the commutative property. The terms of the sum have not been switched, just their numerators.

The correct answer is: $\frac{3}{4} + \frac{1}{7} = \frac{25}{28}$