

Incorrect. When you are adding numbers with different signs, you must first find the difference of their absolute values. Here it would be $63 - 49 = 14$. Then compare $|-49|$ and $|63|$. Since $49 < 63$, the positive addend (63) has a greater absolute value than the negative addend (-49). So the sum is positive. The correct answer is 14.