

While calculating  $4(-4)^2 - 3(-4)$ , you may have thought that  $(-4)^2$  is negative, and also gotten the wrong sign for  $(-3)(-4)$ . Whenever you square a negative number, you get a positive result. Whenever you multiply two negative numbers, you get a positive result.