You may have forgotten to reverse the inequality symbol when dividing both sides of the first inequality by a negative number. The solution to the first inequality is $t \leq -2$. The solution to the second inequality is $t \geq -7$. The solution to the compound inequality is the overlap of these two solutions.

The correct answer is $-7 \leq t \leq -2$.