

To multiply a polynomial by a monomial, be sure to distribute the monomial to each term in the polynomial by multiplying coefficients and adding exponents. It appears that you added the coefficients.