

You must distribute the negative sign on the outside to every term of the polynomial. It was distributed only to the first term.