You may have added 6 to all parts of the inequality first, thinking this would eliminate the left side of the inequality. This would result in $0 < 4p + 16 < 20$. You cannot ignore or drop the first inequality. You need to subtract 10 from all parts of the inequality first to isolate the variable.