

You may not have noticed the word or in the compound inequality. This means that the solution contains values less than or equal to 2 or values greater than 7.