

You added the absolute values of all the fractions. Instead, first add the two negative numbers: add $3\frac{1}{4} + \frac{2}{3}$ and put a negative sign in front. Now you will have $9\frac{5}{8}$ plus a negative number. Find the difference of their absolute values, then figure out if the answer is positive or negative.