Incorrect. When multiplying monomials, multiply the coefficients and add the exponents. Remember that a variable with no exponent is the same as a variable with an exponent of 1.