

To multiply a polynomial by a monomial, be sure to distribute the monomial to every term in the polynomial by multiplying coefficients and adding exponents. It appears that you distributed the monomial only to the first term of the polynomial.