

Incorrect. First find the like terms in each expression. These will have the same variable and the same exponent. Then combine those terms by adding their coefficients.