

Incorrect. Solve each inequality, remembering to apply the properties of inequality to each. The values that make either of the inequalities true will be included in the solution, so both graphs should be shown on the number line.