

You may have just added the given numbers, 12 and 3. You need to substitute these two numbers into the formula and then use the correct order of operations to simplify.