

The solution to this compound inequality is $a \geq -5$ and $a \leq 3$. You may not have noticed that the graph on the number line does not include either of the values -5 or 3 , so the correct solution must not include these values either.