

The solution to this compound inequality is $a < -5$ and $a > 3$. The graph does not represent this set. You may have quickly solved and seen that the values -5 and 3 were open circles on the graph, but you did not notice the direction of the inequality symbols.