

When applying the Distributive Property, multiplication occurs with only the terms inside the parenthesis, not the other parts of the equation. All of the terms inside the parentheses must be multiplied by 6, and you do not multiply  $6 \cdot 36$ .