

You may not have reversed the inequality sign in the second inequality when dividing both sides by -6 . The two inequalities simplify to $m > 3$ and $m > -3$. The solution to this compound inequality is all numbers greater than 3.