The coefficient is the numerical factor of the term. The exponent is the power that the variable is raised to. Also, the second term is $-2x^5$, not $2x^5$, so it has a coefficient of -2. The correct answer is: The coefficients are 7 and -2. The exponents are 6 and 5.