Incorrect. First rewrite this problem in the long division format. The first calculation is $\dfrac{x^3}{x^2} = x$. Put the x on top, then multiply $x\left(x^2 + 4x + 1\right)$. Write this result below the dividend and subtract. Continue the process through another stage.